 This article is an expansion based on a canon element. For canon information, follow the link to The Witcher Wiki: Travel Between World

 This fan-fiction article, The Subsurface, was written by Witcher190 and Aedirn. Please do not edit this fiction without the writers' permission

The Subsurface is another of the spheres that exist in the infinite multiverse who mixed with The World during the Conjunction of the Spheres. A world, discovered by a prostitute named Ecila who, after hitting rock bottom in her life, ended up "falling" down a hole that transported her to another universe. There is no clear conclusion as how it happened. Whether it was because she was a carrier of the Elder Blood or because this world was somehow linked to the Continent. Most conclude that it was the second option. Her testimony was collected in the book Travel Between Worlds. Book of anonymous authorship, but generally attributed to the mages Istredd of Aedd Gynvael or the eccentric Elias Von Drexel.

Trivia

- The mention of Ecila in The Witcher 3 is an obvious reference to Alice, from the book Alice : In Wonderland. In the case of the fanon, this world would also have references to Jules Verne's Journey to the Center of the Earth.
